

There's something truly magical about Christmas. Children laughing, festive decorations, a million little fairy lights, joyous celebrations and a wonderful array of food – they're all a part of this special time of year when, in spite of life's frantic pace, strangers are friends and families embrace age-old traditions.

Since our first café opened in 1936, Shingle Inn has played a special role in family traditions both throughout the year and at Christmas. It's why so many people choose to savour the taste of Christmas and add a special touch to the lives of those they love with our delicious range of Christmas goodies.

As a company with a rich family history, we make sure that a little Christmas sparkle goes into every tasty crumb so that children, big and small, can experience the magic of Christmas in every bite.

From our family to yours,

Merry Christmas

There's something so special about a Shingle Inn Christmas fruit cake. Since as early as 1937, Shingle Inn has baked Christmas fruit cakes and puddings to our traditional recipe, so we understand what makes the perfect cake. Our cakes are a labour of love, with fruit soaked in brandy for three months, mixed with the highest quality raw ingredients and blended together with the greatest of care before being baked and matured to ensure they are perfect when served to your family.

Available in a range of sizes, these beautiful creations also make the perfect table centrepiece or festive gift for this truly special occasion.
